ADVERTISING RATES

IAPE's quarterly magazine, the Evidence Log, currently has a readership of over 4,500 Property and Evidence Professionals throughout the United States and Canada. The Evidence Log reaches a highly targeted demographic comprised of the people who purchase the products you are advertising. The Evidence Log is the only nationally published property room magazine on the market and is the acknowledged resource for locating property room supplies, equipment and certified training classes. A continually growing membership through increased training seminars will ensure an even greater number of readers by the end of the year.
